

Palestinian Chronicles: Journeying through History, Struggle, and Hope

Dr. Emran El-Badawi will take us on a journey through the rich tapestry of Palestinian history. From World War I to the present day, we will explore the challenges and triumphs and address the urgent issue of the ongoing humanitarian crisis faced by the Palestinian people. This event promises to be both educational and inspiring, offering attendees a deeper understanding of one of the most pressing issues of our time.

Tuesday, April 16

1-2:30

Honors Commons

Dr. Emran El-Badawi is Chair of the Department of Modern and Classical Languages, where he also serves as Program Director and Faculty of Middle Eastern Studies at the University of Houston. He founded the Arab Studies program at UH and he has designed, implemented and assessed degree programs in the Humanities and Sciences.