

the university of houston women's studies program presents gender creativity and the new longevity

NOVEMBER 13-15, 2008

FREE ADMISSION, registration recommended

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

thursday november 13, 2008 at 7 pm

john p. mcgovern annual award lecture in family, health, and human values

CONFERENCE

friday 9-5
saturday 9-2

VENUE
elizabeth rockwell pavillion md anderson library uh main campus, entrance 1 for parking info and to register please visit www.friendsofwomen.org or call 713 743 3214

katha pollitt

poet/critic/memoirist

everybody's planning to live long and well. how do we get there from here?

A symposium on the social and personal outcomes of the new longevity and our creative responses as a community to the changing scene.

TALKS ON:

the cultural politics of aging health and longevity economics, public policy and longevity sex and the older woman the psychology of long life quality of life?: elder care, independence and community the creative age

SPEAKERS INCLUDE, among others:

susan charles

university of california at irvine martha holstein

center for long-term care reform/health and medicine policy research group joan engebretson

university of texas health science center/school of nursing

chinhui juhn

university of houston

margaret gullette

brandeis university

elizabeth lokon

scripps college

pamela herd

university of wisconsin

lynn randolph

artist

related exhibition: THRIVE!

presented by DiverseWorks opening party november 14, 2008, 6-8 pm www.diverseworks.org

curated by mary ross taylor

Sponsors:

Alice Kleberg Reynolds Foundation, Joan Wich, UH Office of the President, Humanities Texas, Carey Shuart, Tenneco Lecture Series, Cecily Horton, Janet and Richard Caldwell, Ann Harithas, University Commission on Women, Continental Airlines