

February 3, 2025

This weekly newsletter from the UH Graduate School contains important information for graduate and professional students. Each week, new items are in red.

Graduate and Professional Student Ombudsperson. If you find yourself struggling with an issue and do not know where to turn, you just need to talk confidentially, need clarification on a university policy, procedure, decision, or need an objective perspective and need somebody to explore options with you, please feel free to reach out to the Ombudsperson at gradombuds@uh.edu. More information here.

Cullen Fellowship Travel Grant: The Cullen Fellowship Travel Grant \(CFTG\) is accepting applications. The CFTG is a competitive fellowship program established to support graduate student travel to meetings, conferences, performances, and exhibits to showcase their research and scholarly work. The CFTG is open to all master's, doctorate, and professional students. Applications are due Deadline extended to February 10, 2025.

CIRTL Network Programming: Information about Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching and Learning (CIRTL) spring offerings for graduate students is available here. Check out the Mindset to Mastery: The Inclusive Teaching Course or the Exploring Teaching Careers Series.

Cheer on your fellow graduate students at the inaugural Population Health Case Competition on Feb. 7 at noon in the UH Law Center:

Interdisciplinary Population Health Case Competition
Bridging Disciplines, Transforming Population Health

Engage in the excitement as interdisciplinary teams of graduate students, representing eight colleges, engage in three intense rounds of competition. Witness firsthand how collaboration across disciplines is reshaping population health.
